The two sections above are your Division of Marine Fisheries permit. Do not separate the top two sections. You may separate the top two sections from the rest of the form, and fold it in half. If you choose to laminate your permit, be sure to fold the two halves together so that all your permit information faces out. A printed or electronic version of this permit must be carried while engaged in the activity that this permit authorizes and must be available for display to law enforcement.

Massachusetts saltwater fishing regulations, including minimum size limits, seasons, and harvest limits can be found on the Marine Fisheries website at: www.mass.gov/marinefisheries.

Environmental Police Officers of The Office of Law Enforcement are responsible for enforcing Massachusetts fish and game laws including the commercial and recreational harvest of living marine resources. Report all fishing violations: 1-800-632-8075.

The Division of Marine Fisheries is dedicated to sustaining our fisheries and a healthy marine ecosystem through innovation, collaboration, and leadership. Recreational saltwater fishing permit fees are directed to programs in support of this vision.

Fees are used to improve public access to our resources and to build programs that advance management of our fisheries. With your continued support we will work to enrich the public's way of life for many years into the future.
